Note:	This policy addresses harassment of district employees. For legally referenced material relating to discrimination and retaliation, see DAA(LEGAL). For harassment of students, see FFH. For reporting requirements related to child abuse and neglect, see FFG.
A public official commits a Class A misdemeanor if, while acting in his or her official or employment capacity, the official intentionally subjects another to unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sex- ual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature, submission to which is made a term or condition of a person's ex- ercise or enjoyment of any right, privilege, power, or immunity, ei- ther explicitly or implicitly. Penal Code 39.03
Harassment on the basis of a protected characteristic is a violation of the federal anti-discrimination laws. A district has an affirmative duty, under Title VII, to maintain a working environment free of harassment on the basis of sex, race, color, religion, and national origin. 42 U.S.C. 2000e, et seq.; 29 CFR 1606.8(a), 1604.11
Harassment violates Title VII if it is sufficiently severe and perva- sive to alter the conditions of employment. Pennsylvania State Po- lice v. Suders , 542 U.S. 129 (2004)
Title VII does not prohibit all verbal and physical harassment in the workplace. For example, harassment between men and women is not automatically unlawful sexual harassment merely because the words used have sexual content or connotations. Oncale v. Sundowner Offshore Services, Inc. , 523 U.S. 75 (1998)
Verbal or physical conduct based on a person's sex, race, color, religion, or national origin constitutes unlawful harassment when the conduct:
	the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, ffensive working environment;
	the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an vidual's work performance; or erwise adversely affects an individual's employment op- unities.

SAME-SEX SEXUAL HARASSMENT	Same-sex sexual harassment constitutes sexual harassment. Oncale v. Sundowner Offshore Services, Inc. , 523 U.S. 75 (1998)
HARASSMENT POLICY	A district should take all steps necessary to prevent sexual har- assment from occurring, such as affirmatively raising the subject, expressing strong disapproval, developing appropriate penalties, informing employees of their right to raise and how to raise the is- sue of harassment under Title VII, and developing methods to sen- sitize all concerned. 29 CFR 1604.11(f)
CORRECTIVE ACTION	A district is responsible for acts of unlawful harassment by fellow employees and by nonemployees if the district, its agents, or its supervisory employees knew or should have known of the conduct, unless the district takes immediate and appropriate corrective ac- tion. 29 CFR 1604.11(d), (e), 1606.8(d), (e) en no tangible employment action is taken, a district may raise following affirmative defense:
	1.	That the district exercised reasonable care to prevent and promptly correct any harassing behavior; and
	2.	That the employee unreasonably failed to take advantage of any preventive or corrective opportunities provided by the employer or to avoid harm otherwise.

HARASSMENT OF UNPAID INTERNS	A district commits an unlawful employment practice if sexual har- assment of an unpaid intern occurs and the district or its agents or supervisors know or should have known that the conduct constitut- ing sexual harassment was occurring, and fail to take immediate and appropriate corrective action. Labor Code 21.1065
